

Jens Erik Larsen

Consultant at Foreningen Frie Fugle Copenhagen, Denmark

Jens Erik Larsen has been a consultant at Foreningen Frie Fugle, the organisation involved in the development, planning and marketing of the Danish national cycle routes network, since its birth in 1982. This network was one of the inspirations for EuroVelo, and Jens Erik worked on the first proposal for establishing the EuroVelo network back in 1994. With a background in civil engineering and urban traffic planning, Jens Erik has special expertise in the development and signage of cycling routes. He also works as a cycling tours guide and gives lectures in Denmark and abroad. Jens Erik has been a member of the EuroVelo Council since 2008.
